

KENOSHA COUNTY GENEALOGY SOCIETY

Genealogy is the History of You!

Judy Rockwell grew up on the Johnson family homestead near Sturgis, South Dakota. She married an airman from Vernon County, Wisconsin who was stationed at Ellsworth Air Force Base near Rapid City, South Dakota. After three children and many moves, he retired from the Air Force and almost 40 years ago they returned to Wisconsin. Judy is a retired reference librarian.

After realizing how important writing our own stories is for our families, she started a Lifewriting group at Burlington Public Library that met twice a month for about 4 years. Judy has done Lifewriting presentations at several genealogical societies and at Matheson Memorial Library in Elkhorn. Participants' favorite part of the presentations is always the sharing of the stories.

She is treasurer and past president of Burlington Genealogical Society, current BGS librarian for genealogy resources at the Burlington Wisconsin Public Library, and a dedicated family genealogist..

Lifewriting - Writing Your Memories Judy Rockwell

You are on your family tree too!

Your own personal stories are as important to your family as are your ancestors' stories.

The Kenosha County Genealogy Society is happy to grow our membership. We would love to have you as one of our members. If you are interested in researching your heritage, please join us:

-  Monday, May 8, 2016 — FREE & OPEN to the Public
-  6:00 pm Registration and Conversation
-  6:30 pm — Business Meeting
-  7:00 pm — Program
-  Kenosha Gateway Technical College, 3320—30th Avenue, Madrigano Auditorium