

Kenosha County Genealogy Society
General Meeting Minutes
14 February 2011

The meeting was called to order by President Tom Nielsen at 7:00 pm at Gateway Technical College Madrigrano Auditorium.

One of the speakers for the meeting was Deb Ketchum from the Walworth County Genealogical Society within the Matheson Memorial Library in Elkhorn. Deb gave a very good presentation on the information that is available within the WCGS.

Another speaker was Karen Westin from the UW Whitewater Area Research Center in Whitewater. Karen also gave a wonderful overview of what was available within the UW Whitewater Area Research Center.

After the speaker's presentations, Tom Nielsen called the KCGS Society Meeting to order at 8:10pm.

Sylvia Canada read the secretary's report from the last KCGS Society regular meeting, and it was approved.

Don Kueny gave the Treasurer's report, and the balance as of January 31, 2011 was $2,493.34.

Tom Nielsen asked for three volunteers from the KCGS Society membership to audit the Treasurer's financial records. Two people volunteered, and another person is to be chosen from the next meeting. The financial audit is to be done at 6:30 pm before the next meeting in March.

Claudia Schiller from the Sunshine Committee noted that she sent out one get-well card.

Kathy Woods advised that there would be a trip on Tuesday, February 22, 2011 from 10:00 am – 3:00pm., to the Walworth County Genealogy Society in Elkhorn, and there was a sign-up sheet for any members who wanted to attend.

Old Business: None

New Business:

Suzanne Dibble was advised by Trisha McMaster, who could not attend the meeting, that the display case will be changed at the end of March, 2011. She is in need of old writing instruments, and old letters and postcards. The new theme will be "Letters from Home".

Gary Shea from the Milwaukee Irish Center will be the speaker on Monday, March 14, 2011 at the next KCGS Society meeting.

Sylvia Canada made a motion, and it was seconded by Judy Nielsen to adjourn the meeting at 8:25pm.

Respectfully submitted by:
Sylvia Canada - Secretary
